TLDR

TLDR: Dense pencils = 15 pages / ~150 panels (GT: 15,16,8,13,11,11,8,6,7,11,10,12,9,7,6). Target open style (like finished samples: 3-6 panels/page, usually 3-5, captions + room for art).

Revised flow = ~37 pages / ~140 panels (Pages 1-4 = finished samples already drawn; Pages 5-37 = new open layouts). Old->new: 15 -> ~37 pages. Prefer quiet/wide beats over cramming.

Style target (from finished samples): open layouts, narration captions, 3-4 panels often, splash/wide establishing OK, not dense indie grids.

Art / pacing notes

- Default 3-4 panels; use 5-6 only for dialogue stacks (Arcade intro, herbal cigs, last straw).
- Always leave one wide or quiet beat per 2-3 pages (mall aerial, Time-o-matic, whale, Fresca trunk).
- Narration captions drive tone (match samples); don't recreate every pencil caption.
- Parallel Gabi salon vs Devil mall (old p02) works as sequential pages 7-10 rather than split-screen.
- Colleen card / Emily Clair / Arcade / Sonic / Mikayla are the name anchors to keep consistent across redraws.
